

The following extract of a letter from a friend in Columbus, of the 26th inst. leaves no doubt that there is yet much, and hard fighting to be done.

"News has just reached us, that a small party of Indians came over to the Georgia side on yesterday, a few miles above Roanoke, and attacked a small body of our men stationed there, and routed them. Five white men are said to be killed, and several wounded.

"I have not had the particulars. I think you may rest assured, public opinion to the contrary notwithstanding, that the war has not yet closed."

We learn, that General Sanford has taken the most vigorous means to reinforce our troops in the neighborhood of Roanoke, and Fort M'Crar, and for acting efficiently against the Indians. He is going in person with all his disposable force in pursuit of the enemy;

Where is Gen. Jesup? and how does it happen that he has closed the war and disbanded the army, while the country is full of hostile savages?

AUGUSTA, July 29.

We learn by a gentleman, arrived from Columbus on Wednesday evening, that a battle was fought in Stewart county, near fort Crary, about twenty-eight miles below Columbus, between a party of about two hundred and fifty hostile Greeks, and a part of two companies of Georgia troops, in all about ninety men, in which the latter were defeated, it is stated, with five killed—on the part of the Indians seven were found dead, and it is supposed about thirty were killed in all. As soon as the news reached Gen. Sanford, he immediately dispatched six companies, himself at the head, with the determination of clearing them out of the country, before he returned.

The gentleman from whom we gain this information, also states that there is not the least danger to be apprehended by those travelling through the nation, by the stage route, as at every stand there is a strong military force, and guards accompany the stage from one post to the other.

SAVANNAH, July 28.

Latest from Florida.—By the steam packet John Stoncy, Capt. Freeland, arrived yesterday from Gray's ferry, via Jacksonville and St. Mary's we learn the following particulars of an action between a body of Indians, and Capt. Ashby's command, in which, we regret to learn that Capt. A. was severely wounded, and Dr. Wightman also wounded. It is, we learn, still very sickly at Gary's ferry and fort Drane—fort Drane and Micanopy are completely invested.

We would rejoice to see a body of volunteers proceed to the relief of fort Drane, where we understand, the officers and men are, more or less, enfeebled by sickness. The day on which the action took place we are unable to state, as our informant is unadvised. We are gratified to find that Col. Hallows, who was recently wounded by the Indians, is completely out of danger, and has arrived here, to the relief of his numerous friends. We subjoin the following.

As the escort under Capt. Ashby who had been engaged in the evacuating Fort Drane was proceeding to Micanopy, and had arrived within a mile of the latter place, it was attacked by a party of Indians, supposed to number from 150 to 200, who kept up a brisk and constant fire upon 50 men composing the escort for upwards of an hour when the Indians retired. The firing was heard at Micanopy, and a detachment under Lieut. Temple was sent out to reinforce Captain Ashby, and arrived on the ground just as the Indians had commenced a second attack which they did as long as they saw the train keep in motion. One baggage wagon was captured by the Indians after killing the horses. None of the whites were killed—14 wounded—among whom is Capt. Ashby, dangerously and Dr. Wightman, severely in the neck. The evacuation of Fort Drane is now suspended, and the Indians have complete possession of the country between Micanopy and Fort Drane.

Fresh Indian trails were seen at Col. Hallows' place, as the boat came down on Monday last.

TEXAS.

The Mexican government has determined to suspend hostilities against this republic during the sickly season. Recent accounts say that dissections continually take place from the invading army, and that it is not improbable but that the government of Mexico may eventually be compelled to acknowledge the Independence of Texas, from want of men, as well as money, to prosecute the war.—A forced loan of two million of dollars has been resorted to in Mexico, which may end in another revolution, as the English and French Ministers entered their protest, calling upon foreigners not to contribute towards the amount. Santa Anna's party was considered to be out of power—and that the Federal party was succeeding in every direction. State after state was revolutionizing and that too, with little bloodshed—the priests were little cared for—the treasury was completely exhausted. It was said that the new party would not, on any account, prosecute the war in Texas. SANTA ANNA has declared to the Mexican Government the impossibility of conquering Texas, and recommended the acknowledgment of her Independence.

Cotton Crops.—From the most authentic accounts it appears tolerably certain that there will be little more than half crops realized in Mississippi and Alabama.

Casualty.—In firing a salute, on Friday, 29th July, at Greenville, N. C. the cannon burst, killing one white man and two negroes, and wounding twelve others—some supposed mortally.

GEN. HARRISON ON ABOLITION.

We would ask attention to the annexed extract from a speech of Gen. Harrison, giving his views of the constitutional method of abolishing slavery in the United States. The plan proposed by the "petticoat" candidate for the Presidency is certainly one of novel experiment, to-wit: first tax the people sufficient to create an enormous surplus in the Treasury of the United States, and then purchase the slaves of the people with their own money and colonize them—How very praiseworthy! What an exquisite method of "Robbing Peter to pay Paul." But for the extract—here it is: "Should I be asked if there be no way by which the General Government can aid the cause of emancipation, I answer, that it has been long an object near my heart to see the whole of its surplus revenue appropriated to that object, with the sanction of the states holding the slaves. There appears to me to be no constitutional objection to its being thus applied, embracing not only the colonization of those that may be otherwise freed, but the purchase of the freedom of others."

We ask if there is a citizen of the south who would seriously think of supporting such a politician for the Presidency of the United States?
